(1) Where long sessions have been split into 2 or more parts, performers may attend for all parts of their session or only the part that they are performing in.

- The adjudicator will not give reports or results until the end of the last part.
- If remaining for all parts, please bring refreshments for the meal break. Everyone will be required to leave the room during the break and return 10 minutes prior to the commencement of the next part.

(2) Where short sessions have been combined together, students will need to present for the first section and remain until the end of the final one.
